

BROOKS LOFTIN ALEXANDER

1 would you make any check on it before you publish it?

2 A. I relied upon Mr. Duddy to do the checking.
3 It was my understand that he had confirmed it.

4 Q. So the answer is, you personally would not
5 make any changes; is that correct?

6 A. That's right.

7 Q. You would just rely on whatever somebody else
8 told you; is that right?

9 A. Well, depending, of course, upon the person's 10 credibility and the general level of their research and
11 so forth.

12 Q. Well, what did you know about the level of 13 the research of Mr. Duddy in March of 1979?

14 A. I knew that Mr. Duddy was a diligent
15 researcher, in terms of his reading and in his effort to 16 develop facts from field research and interviews.

17 Q. How did you know it? What testing had you
18 done on the man's work?

19 A. By watching him operate in context that I was
20 familiar with, I formed a conclusion that Mr. Duddy was a
21 reliable, diligent researcher.

22 Q. All right. Give me one example, that you can
23 tell me, of where you actually checked Mr. Duddy's work?

24 A. I can't think of a specific instance in which
25 I checked Mr. Duddy's work to see if it was factually
26 accurate, but Mr. Duddy told me that he had received
