

NEIL T. DUDDY

1 the book?

2 A. That Mr. Lee's soteriology on sanctification
3 theories in practice with pastoral theology will permit and
4 allow for instances of a lack of forthrightness.

5 Q. Okay. And again you'd forgive me, Mr. Duddy,
6 but I have to bring all those fancy words down to my level.

7 Are you saying to the jury, that it was your
8 intention to convey to the readers that Witness Lee's
9 teachings will allow a person, who wants to follow his 10 teachings, to conclude that he could be a liar or be 11 deceitful and still be a good Christian within 12 Witness Lee's concept?

13 A. That is correct.

14 Q. Okay. Was it also your intention to convey to 15 the readers of the book, that Witness Lee's teachings would 16 allow one who follows those teachings to engage in some 17 form of sexual assault, including rape, and still regard
18 himself as a good Christian under Witness Lee's teaching?

19 A. That is correct.

20 Q. Okay. And you put in your manuscript at 21 page -- in Exhibit 405 an incident of a sexual assault that 22 you represented was brought about, in some way, by
23 Witness Lee's teaching; is that correct?

24 MR. WOODRUFF: What page number was that again,
25 please?

26 MR. MORGAN: I'm waiting for an answer first. Then
