

NEIL T. DUDDY

1 Q. Did you ever request a professional therapist
2 to consult with her?

3 A. No.

4 Q. Okay. Other than a professional therapist,
5 who, in your opinion, would be best qualified to determine
6 whether she did, in fact, have any such pressures?

7 A. Her pastor.

8 Q. All right. Did the pastor ever tell you that
9 she had the pressures?

10 A. No.

11 Q. Did you ever ask him?

12 A. No.

13 Q. Okay. Let's go on to number 15.

14 "At the time I contacted members of
15 the Local Church, and afterwards, I neither
16 experienced nor was experiencing any of the 17 three stages of the so-called," quote,
18 "deceiving syndrome," end quote, "described
19 by the author."

20 Is that accurate?

21 A. I don't believe so.

22 Q. Okay. Again, who would be best qualified to
23 determine that?

24 A. Professional therapist.

25 Q. Okay. And after a professional therapist, her
26 pastor?

NEIL T. DUDDY

1 A. No, I think at that point I would mention a
2 sociologist.

3 Q. And after her sociologist, her pastor?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. All right. But you never went and talked to
6 the pastor, did you?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Okay. Why didn't you go and talk to the pastor
9 after you read her affidavit?

10 A. Pardon me?

11 Q. Why didn't you go and talk to her pastor after 12 you read her affidavit?

13 A. I don't recall when I tried to get in contact
14 with Pastor Sampson in relationship to the document.

15 Q. Okay. Let me go on.

16 Number 16.

17 "Prior to moving into the Summy house
18 I had been practicing serious prayer life and 19 Bible study. I definitely did not learn these 20 from the Summys."

21 Is that accurate?

22 A. I don't know.

23 Q. Number 17.

24 "Since my childhood I learned from my
25 parents to love, to trust, to receive edifying
26 criticism and bear responsibility."
