

NEIL T. DUDDY

1 had an obligation to check with, at least, one hospital,
2 on one person, to see if these people were telling you the
3 truth? "Yes" or "no"?

4 A. On that specific cause, no.

5 Q. Okay. Now, in the book itself --

6 A. Could we take a break, Mr. Morgan?

7 Q. If you give me a few minutes, I'll be through.

8 MR. WOODRUFF: If he wants a break we'll take a
9 break and then you can finish. It will be just a few
10 minutes.

11 MR. MORGAN: All right. Okay.

12 MR. WOODRUFF: We don't want the witness to be
13 uncomfortable.

14 MR. MORGAN: I don't want the witness to be
15 uncomfortable.

16 MR. WOODRUFF: You told me you were going to tack
17 it on to the end too, it's all right.

18 [Short recess.]

19 MR. MORGAN: O. Okay. Mr. Duddy, we're back on
20 the record and you're still under oath.

21 Mr. Duddy, can you tell me, in a reasonably brief
22 statement, what Mr. Alexander's contribution to the 23 manuscript was?

24 A. Mr. Alexander acted as the presiding editor on
25 behalf of the SCP, over the manuscript, and made notations
26 and insertions into the manuscript itself.
