

NEIL THOMAS DUDDY

1 documents.]

2 MR. GRIDLEY: Off the record.

3 [Discussion off the record.]

4 MR. MORGAN: Q. Okay. Have you found it,
5 Mr. Duddy?

6 MR. GRIDLEY: Still don't see it.
7 Can you help me, Dan?

8 MR. MORGAN: Q. Mr. Duddy, when you wrote in 9 405.18, quote,

10 "This lack of forthrightness in
11 self-representation is in many respects the 12 most disturbing of all the qualities which the 13 Local Church displays," end of the quote.

14 Does that also relate to the deception that you
15 referred to with the Local Church proselyter?

16 A. In part, yes.

17 Q. All right. So that will you agree, sir,
18 that a reader could conclude from the writing of your
19 manuscript that this lack of forthrightness in 20 self-representation is, in fact, conduct of deception?

21 A. I think that depends on the context of the 22 material that's under discussion, Mr. Morgan.

23 Q. Okay. So the conduct of the proselyter was 24 deception, wasn't it?

25 A. I believe so.

26 Q. Okay. And it was intentional deception,
