Robert Meze phone call 5/20/80

Not exactly comfortable w/ the allegation of misrepresentation.

Ruling thought in Fuller's mind was that though the one document looked OK, ~~it~~ <sup>Freeman</sup> was so connected w/ a movement that exempted itself from other Christian that Fuller could not bring itself to OK that group.

No thought of misrepresentation ever entered Meze's mind or the mind of the other faculty member (not Bromiley) involved until I read the paragraph from Duddy's book.

I told Meze on the basis of this we would pull this IP from the book.

5/20/80 phone call
Duddy

Duddy says. the brief document of doctrines does not reflect actual LC doctrine. he can be quoted as saying the opposite

See p. 408. GM

1:15<sup>PM</sup> to Robert McCre same call as to Roebuck.

Call to Roebuck

JWJ

Came before academic affairs committee 3 times.

Roebuck says Bill was as forthright as possible about what the local Church believed.

Bill was a former student.

Bromley had written <sup>it</sup> forward to his book.

Bromley has had open-heart surgery. He is speechless. Had also had an operation on his throat.

A person taken into the local church would be an exception. Would have to be reviewed specially. <sup>Fullerton.</sup>

Thinks Bromiley would not have made such a statement.
