

1 A. I don't.

2 Q. We have to assume that someone got something
3 from Mr. Weldon between the time this letter was written
4 and the time the editorial process began; right?
5 Otherwise there would be nothing to edit.

6 A. Chapters were sent to Charles Strohmer.

7 Q. And you never received any chapters.

8 A. Not that I recall.

9 Q. At what point did you finally receive the 10 book?

11 A. The book, I believe, came in in parts in July
12 of '99. And that is just what I remember.

13 Q. And it came in from Mr. Strohmer?

14 A. That's right.

15 Q. And then did you read the parts as they came 16 in?

17 A. I did not.

18 Q. Were they read by anyone other than copy
19 editors and proofreaders?

20 A. Not to my knowledge.

21 Q. And you sent them out to Mr. Weldon for his
22 approval; correct?

23 A. Mr. Weldon received galleys.

24 Q. Prepared by whom?

25 A. The galleys were prepared by the design and
